Dublin, 24th of December 1861

My dear Friend

A large box full of books from the American A. S. Society, of which I have lent you a sample, has been forwarded to me for distribution.

I have been requested to send 1 to Mr. L'Ancl & one to Mr. Furgess.

Can you furnish me with the address of the latter gentleman, also with the name & address of any other people on the Continent to whom you think I should send this very interesting volume.

~~The~~ Much of the sentiment in the United States is favorable to the Anti Slavery Cause & I have great hope that the talk of a war between England & the U. S. will blow over. I have nothing of your letters since they reached home.
We are much in our usual fashion.

Yours ever truly,

Rich^d D. Webb.
